NEW BUSINESS

1. TANGLEWOOD / LEVIN RESIDENCE | 168 HARRISON AVENUE | DR-EA-ADU 15-191

Staff: Calvin Chan

DESCRIPTION: Preservation Architecture, on behalf of property owners Asriel and Carmela Levin, has submitted a request to amend the Local Historic Register Designation for the Tanglewood/Levin Residence property located at 168 Harrison Avenue.

PROJECT: Conduct a study session to determine the appropriateness of the requested amendment to the Local Historic Register Designation. Adopt a recommendation to the Planning Commission. The project will be considered at a future joint Planning Commission and Historic Landmarks Board public hearing.

Associate Planner Chan provided an overview of the project. Mark Hulbert from Preservation Architecture followed with an overview of the project.

Recommendation to Planning Commission: Having conducted prior site visits to the subject property and reviewed the information contained in the original Local Historic Register Designation and Revised Nomination information as submitted by Preservation Architecture, the Historic Landmarks Board recommends the removal of the gardens from the Local Historic Register Designation (City Council Resolution No. 4024) as the once exotic and historic plantings are no longer present or applicable for rehabilitation under the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties.
