Message from the

Parks and Recreation Director

After two winters of rain I am sure you are looking forward to the summer as much as I am. Another exciting season of events is planned, including Jazz and Blues by the Bay, Kids concerts at Robin Sweeny Park, the Sausalito Art Festival, and of course the 4th of July. In addition to all the summer events, be sure to check out the classes and other programs listed in the Magazine.

This summer will also be the beginning of a busy year of park renovations. In spring or early summer, the tennis courts at MLK Park are slated to be renovated with a new surface, accessible pathways and entrances, and an accessible parking space. Southview Park will also have extensive work done with the replacement of the failing retaining walls, the installation of a new playground, and renovations to the terrace area. This project could begin as soon as August.

In addition, City Staff is working on plans to renovate Dunphy Park and the field and basketball courts at MLK Park. Timelines for these two projects have not been set, but we hope that at least some of the work can be started this summer or fall.

The renovation work is being funded by Certificates of Participation funds approved by residents with the passage of Measure F in 2015. Project plans and timelines may be adjusted to fit cost estimates within a final project budget.

Have a great summer and I hope to see you around town!

NEW! Acrylic Landscape Painting

Paint Marin landscapes with Bernard Healey. Both beginners and experienced will learn the elements of acrylic painting including composition, color theory and perspective. Each session is fully demonstrated and supportively critiqued. Subjects covered will be trees and water scenes of areas such as Marin farmlands, Raccoon Strait, Mt. Tamalpais, Richardson Bay, and Tennessee Valley. Bring any supplies that you have. A suggested supplies list will be provided at the first session.

Bernard Healey began his Art career in 1947 after serving in the US Navy. He attended the Academy of Advertising Art and the California School of Fine Art, both in San Francisco. He later worked as a publication illustrator at the Bechtel Corporation, a worldwide Construction company, and he eventually joined the Marin Society of Artists in Ross, where he exhibited his own work, served as a juror, and chaired their Artist Advisory Council.

In 2004, instructors at College of Marin noticed Healey’s solo acrylic painting exhibit and invited him to join the faculty, where he continues to teach. He also teaches and lectures at Marin Museum of Contemporary Art, the Mill Valley Community Center, and privately in his home studio.

Although Healey prefers to work in acrylics, he has also become proficient in watercolor. Most of his paintings are plein air, but he occasionally works from reference photos and paints finished work in his home studio.

Home Delivery Program

The Sausalito Library offers a home delivery service of library materials using volunteer drivers from Call a Ride for Sausalito Seniors (CARSS). Participation in this program is free and open to residents of Sausalito and the floating home community who are 60 years of age or older, and to younger adults with a disability. If you are interested in having books, movies, or audiobooks delivered to your door, you will need to fill out a short application and sign a liability waiver, in addition to being a library card holder. All CARSS drivers have been vetted by Verified Volunteers. The service is available Monday through Friday, 10am to 2pm. For more information, please contact program coordinator Augie Webb at 415-289-4121 or awebb@sausalito.gov.

E-Books and E-Audiobooks

The Sausalito Library offers a huge online collection of popular electronic books and e-audiobooks for adults and children through the OverDrive service. If you're not familiar with these resources, please look for the OverDrive button in the Digital Collections area of the Library homepage or download the OverDrive app to your mobile device. If you need extra help, we are available to help you get set up on your smart phone, tablet, laptop, iPad, Kindle, or e-reading device. For more information, please contact the Reference Desk at 415-289-4121 or reference@sausalito.gov.

Watch Movies with Kanopy and Hoopla

The Sausalito Library offers two streaming video services that are free to Sausalito residents. Kanopy (sausalito.kanopystreaming.com) is a collection of thousands of independent, classic, and foreign films, including films from the Criterion Collection of world cinema. Hoopla (www.hoopladigital.com) features an eclectic selection of Hollywood and independent movies. Both can be accessed with your Sausalito library card via app, the Library website, or the web addresses above. If you have any trouble accessing Kanopy, Hoopla, or any of the other digital collections offered by the Sausalito Library, please contact City Librarian Abbot Chambers at achambers@sausalito.gov or 415-289-4123.

New York Times Online

Did you know that you can get free online access to the New York Times through the Library? By obtaining a special code from the Library website and creating an account with the New York Times using your email address, you can receive a 24-hour unlimited access pass. There is no limit to the number of times you can generate a 24-hour pass. The service will work for smartphones and tablets, as well as laptop and desktop computers. Look for the New York Times button in the Digital Collections area of the Library homepage to get started. If you have questions, or receive an error message when logging in, please contact Augie Webb at awebb@sausalito.gov.

High-Speed Internet

The Sausalito Library's free public internet service went from slow to blazing fast in 2017, when the Library connected to CalREN, the California Research and Education Network. The change affects the public computers in the Library and the public Wi-Fi available in the Library and City Hall. At the Library's public internet stations, where download speeds had previously been in the range of five to ten megabits per second (Mbps), users will now see speeds topping out at 500 Mbps. The Library's free wireless network (called "library") has also gotten a big speed boost, to over 100 Mbps. Some mobile devices may see slower speeds due to hardware limitations.

Library Email Newsletters

There's a lot going on at the Sausalito Library! To help local residents stay on top of things, the Library has two email newsletters, one covering all Library programs and services, the other focused entirely on children's services. Visit the Library webpage to sign up for one or both newsletters, or send a "sign me up!" email message to Augie Webb at awebb@sausalito.gov. Library e-newsletters are sent out once every two weeks.

Unlimited Access to Lynda.com

Sausalito residents have access to the vast collection of online training courses and video tutorials available from Lynda.com—all you need is a library card. The courses and tutorials are taught by subject experts and cover everything from using your iPhone, to online marketing, to playing the electric guitar. Look for the Lynda button in the Digital Collections area of the Library homepage for a link to the Library's special Lynda account, or go directly to: www.lynda.com/portal/patron?org=sausalitolibrary.org

Ancestry

The popular genealogy software tool Ancestry is available for use on the Library's public computers. Ancestry features censuses, vital records, immigration records, family histories, military records, court and legal documents, directories, photos, maps, and more. If you have any questions about Ancestry, please contact the Reference Desk at 415-289-4121 or reference@sausalito.gov.

Museum Passes

Discover & Go is an online service you can use to reserve and print free and discount passes to Bay Area museums and cultural institutions like the Asian Art Museum, the Exploratorium, and the California Academy of Sciences. Look for the Discover & Go button in the Digital Collections area of the Library homepage to access the service. Please note that Marin libraries receive a limited allocation of museum tickets; tickets for popular museums may not be available unless booked well in advance. If you have any questions about Discover and Go, please contact the Reference Desk at 415-289-4121 or reference@sausalito.gov.

Free Admission Tickets to the de Young Museum and the Legion of Honor

In addition to the Discover & Go online service, the Library offers free general admission tickets to the de Young Museum and the Legion of Honor in San Francisco. Every adult library card holder living in Sausalito is entitled to one ticket per year (each ticket admits two adults). Tickets are purchased through grants from the Friends of the Library and the Sausalito Art Festival Foundation.

Borrow a California State Parks Vehicle Day Pass

Thanks to a generous gift of the family and friends of Lisa Kimberly Nunn York, the Library has two "Golden Poppy" California State Parks vehicle day passes available to the public. The passes provide free vehicle admission and parking to over one hundred state parks, beaches, and recreation areas, including area parks like Mount Tamalpais, China Camp, and Samuel P. Taylor. To borrow a pass, look for one of the Golden Poppy cases in the central display area of the Sausalito Public Library. Bring the case to the service desk with your library card, and you can check out a storage bag containing the pass and information about California State Parks. Passes circulate for seven days and are not renewable. To ensure that a pass is available and save yourself a trip to the Library, call the Reference Desk at 415-289-4121. If a pass is available, we can set it aside for you for up to two hours.

Sausalito Marin Scope Digital Archive

The Sausalito Public Library, the Sausalito Library Foundation, and Marinscope Community Newspapers have partnered to provide access to a digital archive of the Sausalito Marin Scope, Sausalito's weekly newspaper since 1971. The archive covers forty-four years and over 2,000 issues of the Sausalito Marin Scope and is available free of charge on the public computers of the Sausalito Library. Replacing the Library's old microfilm collection, the digital archive unlocks Sausalito's past by allowing users to search the vast archives by keyword. To access the Sausalito Marin Scope digital archive, visit the Sausalito Library anytime during open hours.

Sausalito News Archive

Thanks to grants from the Sausalito Library Foundation and the Sausalito Historical Society, the Library is able to offer online access to digital archives of The Sausalito News from 1885 to 1966. The archive may be searched and browsed via the California Digital Newspaper Collection, maintained by the University of California, Riverside. You can find the collection on the web at cdnc.ucr.edu, or via the Services section of the Library website.

Programs for Adults

The Sausalito Public Library offers a wide variety of free public programs for people of all ages. For the latest program schedule, please call the Library at 415-289-4121, visit sausalitolibrary.org, or sign up for the Library e-newsletter by emailing awebb@sausalito.gov.

Friday Evening Programs

The room inhabited by the Sausalito Library was once the auditorium of Sausalito's old Central School. To recapture its days as a theater space, the Library holds regular after-hours Friday evening programs like the Sausalito Documentary Film series. For most Friday evening programs, we clear the Library "living room" and new-book display area of furniture, then set up rows of chairs facing our projection screen, which drops down in front of the Children's Room.

Sausalito Documentary Film Series

The Sausalito Documentary Film Series is presented in the winter on Friday evenings inside the Library. The series features films about Sausalito or that were made by a filmmaker who is based in Sausalito. The documentary film series was first presented in 2015.

Speaker Series

The Library's speaker series programs typically take place on Thursday evenings in the City Hall Council Chambers. Programs range from author readings to lectures on history or finance. If you or someone you know would be interested in presenting a speaker series event at the Library, please contact Abbot Chambers at achambers@sausalito.gov or 415-289-4123.

Marin Master Gardener Series

The Sausalito Library is pleased to present monthly talks by Master Gardeners, in conjunction with local nonprofit Sausalito Beautiful and the University of California Cooperative Extension Marin Master Gardeners. The talks typically take place in the City Hall Council Chambers on the last Thursday of the month, in the evening. Past topics have included Gardening with California Natives, Backyard Birds, Succulents, and Pruning 101.

Coloring & Doodling Party for Adults

Come relax and join the coloring party! Coloring and doodling can help improve focus and memory. The Library provides all coloring supplies, and bookmarks and buttons made from your artwork. We offer a stress-free atmosphere, soothing music, and delicious refreshments so you can unleash your imagination. Programs are typically held once a month on a weekday afternoon. For more information, please contact Rebecca at rburgan@sausalito.gov or 415-289-4121. The library also offers a variety of coloring books for adults to take home, color, and return. Leave your artwork in the book for others to see! Need coloring implements? Boxes of colored pencils are now available for in-library use.

Museum Docent Lectures

The Library's Museum Docent Lectures are matinee programs typically held in the City Hall Council Chambers on Tuesday afternoons. Programs are presented by museum docents and cover a current or upcoming exhibit at the de Young Museum, the Legion of Honor, or the Asian Art Museum. Lectures are illustrated by slides from the exhibit.

Metropolitan Opera Previews

Met Opera previews are presented by Sausalito resident and opera aficionado Tom Wilhite. Tom's previews provide an entertaining introduction to an upcoming performance at the Metropolitan Opera in New York. Each preview includes stories about the composer and opera and a selection of audio and video clips from past performances. Tom's previews typically take place on a Tuesday evening before the corresponding Saturday morning Live in HD simulcast from the Met. This is the sixth year of Metropolitan Opera previews sponsored by the Sausalito Library.

Sausalito Writers' Circle

Looking for a supportive group to share your writing with? Ready to tackle that story, novel or poem? Interested in providing feedback to others? Join the Sausalito Writers' Circle! Here's how the Writers' Circle works: members submit up to ten double-spaced, numbered pages (poets: two poems) in advance of each session, and the group's time together is then spent in offering productive, positive feedback to one another. The Sausalito Writers' Circle typically meets twice a month, on Sundays from 3pm to 4:30pm. Attendance is free. Your host is recently relocated Sausalito resident, published author, and experienced workshop facilitator, Cindy Knoebel. If interested in attending, please send email to achambers@sausalito.gov.

Art Exhibits

Every six weeks, a new exhibit of artwork by a local artist is presented on the walls of the Sausalito Library. To be eligible, artists must either live, work, or rent/own studio space in Sausalito. For information about exhibiting your work at the Library, please contact Abbot Chambers at achambers@sausalito.gov or 415-289-4123.

Sausalito Library Trustees

The Library Board of Trustees serves as a liaison between the Library and the community and between the Library and the Sausalito City Council. The five-member board is appointed by the City Council, with members serving three-year terms. The board's role is to review the administration of Library operations, make recommendations and establish policies. For inquiries about becoming a Library Trustee or a Trustee alternate, please contact the Sausalito City Clerk at 415-289-4134.

Friends of the Sausalito Public Library

You are invited to become a member of the Friends of the Sausalito Public Library. Your membership will aid the Friends in their support of the Library.

The Friends provide "wish list" funding as requested by the Sausalito City Librarian. This includes support for the Speaker Series and the Sausalito People series, children's programs and story times, museum passes, and equipment such as the projection and sound system in the Library.

You may donate by becoming a member, making a monetary donation, or donating books and other media. Book and media donations may be used to replace worn materials in the Library collection or sold in the Friends Bookstore on the second floor of City Hall. The Bookstore is open Mondays from 9am to 5pm, and Wednesdays and Saturdays from 10am to 1pm. Please come in to browse our ever-changing collection and find a wide range of materials at very reasonable prices!

Donations may be dropped off at the collection box outside the Bookstore on the second floor of City Hall or in the Library. A cart is available to bring books in from the parking lot. Donations of multiple boxes or bags are best brought to the Bookstore during open hours. If that is not possible, call Libby Wilkinson at 415-332-0206 to arrange a time convenient for you.

All donations are tax deductible.

You can become a member in person at the Library or online at friendsofthesausalitolibrary.org or by email to fosl94965@gmail.com.

You are also invited to donate your time by volunteering in the Bookstore. Contact Libby Wilkinson at 415-332-0206 or libbywilkinson2@gmail.com.

Volunteers also help at the Library by reshelving books and processing interlibrary loan materials. If you have an hour or two each week and would like to become more closely involved with the Library, contact Jim Delano at 415-215-6538 or jdelano43@comcast.net.

We welcome and appreciate your membership, your participation, and your ideas.

Sausalito Library Foundation

The Sausalito Library Foundation provides long-term support for the Sausalito Public Library. Donations and bequests from the community are used to maintain a revenue source to fund capital improvements and major purchases that make a long-term impact on the Library and its users. We work to ensure that our Library remains an essential community resource now and in the future. In light of remarkable shifts in technology and the delivery of information, the Foundation will help the Sausalito Library evolve and adapt so that the Library's physical space meets ever-changing needs.

Our thanks go out to the many individuals and organizations whose generous contributions have helped build our financial resources. The income from and appreciation of these gifts have helped the Foundation Fund grow. With this growth, we're helping to safeguard our Library's future.

For more information about the Library Foundation, please write to 420 Litho Street, Sausalito, 94965. Email messages may be directed to unexport@earthlink.net.

How Your Donations Support the Library

Sausalito Library Foundation: The Foundation uses donations from individuals, organizations, and businesses to establish a long-term revenue source that supports the Library through special projects.

Friends of the Library: The Friends' primary source of income is the Friends Bookstore on the top floor of City Hall. Your book donations and volunteer time help the Friends support Library programs and pay for items on the Library's wish list.

Please note: The Foundation and the Friends of the Library are separate organizations, both 501(c)(3) nonprofits, which complement one another and collaborate to meet our Library's needs beyond the capabilities of City funding. Neither the Friends of the Library nor the Sausalito Library Foundation contributions are meant to supplant our publicly funded Library budget.

Tsunami Message Definitions

ALERT LEVEL	POTENTIAL HAZARD(S)	ACTION
Warning	Dangerous Coastal flooding and powerful currents	Move to high ground or inland
Advisory	Strong currents and waves dangerous to those in or very near water	Stay out of water, away from beaches and waterways
Watch	Not yet known	Stay tuned for more information; be prepared to act
Information Statement	No threat or very distant event for which hazard has not yet been determined	No action suggested at this time

Tsunamis are among earth's most infrequent natural disasters. Even though tsunamis do not occur very often, and most are small and nondestructive, they pose a major threat to coastal communities, particularly along the Pacific Coast. A tsunami can strike any ocean coast at any time. There is no particular season for tsunamis, therefore we cannot predict where, when, or how destructive the next tsunami will be. While tsunamis cannot be prevented, there are things you can do before, during, and after a tsunami that could save your life and lives of your family and friends. The key to understanding what action to take and when, is in understanding the U.S. Tsunami Warning System. That system is managed by the NOAA/National Weather Service.

The U.S. Tsunami Warning Centers issue tsunami messages to notify emergency managers, the public, and other partners about the potential for a tsunami following a possible-generated event. To provide messages as early as possible, the warning centers use preset criteria that is based on preliminary earthquake information. The information is then used to help decide when and where to issue tsunami messages and what alert(s) to include. Subsequent messages and alerts are based on impact estimation resulting from additional seismic analysis, water level measurements, tsunami forecast model results, and historical tsunami information. Messages are transmitted to the public through various means such as social media, Emergency Alert Systems, Alert Marin, and the National Weather Service's weather radio.

Domestic tsunami messages are issued for U.S. and Canadian coastlines and the British Virgin Islands. These messages include alerts but, also serve to cancel alerts when appropriate. There are four levels of tsunami alerts: Warning, Advisory, Watch, and Information Statement. Each has a distinct meaning that directly correlates to local emergency responses. Recommended precautionary steps vary within areas under warnings and advisories. Be alert and follow instructions from local emergency officials because they may have more detailed and specific information.

Find more information regarding home safety, education and outreach material, and the Tsunami Ready Program on the National Weather Service Tsunami Safety home page: www.nws.noaa.gov/om/Tsunami/Index.html

New Online Reporting System

The Sausalito Police Department is proud to announce it will be providing a new online police reporting option for the public. This web based reporting system will allow the public to file certain non-emergency incident types (Harassing Phone Calls, Identity Theft, Lost Property, Theft, Theft from Vehicles, Vandalism, Vehicle Tampering) over the internet at their convenience. The Sausalito Police Department expects this internet based reporting service to be popular among citizens who have come to expect certain services to be provided online.

The service will allow the public to file a report at a time that is best for them without having to wait for an officer to respond or call them back. The public will be able to print a temporary copy of the report upon submitting the report. The report will be reviewed by police department personnel and once approved, the reporting party will receive an email with a copy of the report attached without cost. The report will transfer into the Sausalito Police Department's records management system and receive the same investigation and statistical analysis ability as if the report had been filed by a police officer.

This web based reporting option will allow officers more time to address community needs while keeping pace with the public expectancy to complete services via the internet. The Sausalito Police Department will be using the Desk Officer Online Reporting System from San Ramon, California based software company Coplogic, Inc. (www.Coplogic.com).

Volunteering and its Surprising Benefits How Giving to Others Makes You Healthier and Happier

Why Volunteer?

Volunteering offers vital help to people in need, worthwhile causes, and the community, but the benefits can be even greater for you, the volunteer. Volunteering and helping others can help you reduce stress, combat depression, keep you mentally stimulated, and provide a sense of purpose. While it's true that the more you volunteer, the more benefits you'll experience, volunteering doesn't have to involve a long-term commitment or take a huge amount of time out of your busy day. Giving in even simple ways can help others in need and improve your health and happiness.

- Volunteering connects you to others
- Volunteering is good for your mind and body
- Volunteering combats depression
- Volunteering makes you happy
- Volunteering increases self-confidence
- Volunteering provides a sense of purpose
- Volunteering helps you stay physically healthy
- Volunteering brings fun and fulfillment to your life

Age Friendly Sausalito: New Age Friendly Home Adaptation Building Permit Grant Program Aims to Help You Make Your Home Safer and More Convenient

Every 11 seconds somewhere in our country an older adult is treated in an Emergency Room because of a fall. And more than 50% of falls happen in the home. In Sausalito, falls at home are the number one reason emergency medical services are called, and older adults are transported to the hospital.

To help Sausalito residents age 60 or older and younger adults with a disability improve their home environment, the City's Community Development Department joined with Age Friendly Sausalito to create the Age Friendly Home Adaptation Grant Program which will allow eligible homeowners and renters (who have attained landlord approval), to make accessibility improvements to their place of residence with a reduced fee or no-cost building permit. This new program makes it more affordable to obtain building permits to make homes safer and more accommodating to the changing situations and conditions in life,

HOW IT WORKS:

- A resident will fill out a form which they can obtain from the building permits window at City Hall, or online at www.sausalito.gov. The form requires proof of age (age 60 or older) or standard proof of disability, to determine resident's eligibility under the Age Friendly Permit Program. A list of the proposed home improvements with the associated costs of labor and materials (project valuation) will also be required so City staff can determine project eligibility under the Program.
- A full list of eligible modifications is available from the building permits window. A few examples of eligible improvements include: stair elevator lifts, ramps to entries, handrails, wider doors (33 inches or greater), bathroom improvements such as adjustable height counters, bracing in walls for grab bars at tubs, showers, and toilets, no-curb showers, and many, many more.
- Age Friendly Home Adaptation Permits will be a reduced fee or no-cost permit based on the project valuation cost of maximum $10,000 for eligible adaptation improvements. (other home modifications made for cosmetic or other purposes at the same time are charged the standard permit fee).
- Eligibility is established by proof of age 60, or by any standard proof of disability (e.g. DMV permanent disability placard or written confirmation from Medical Provider – see application form).
- The Program will accept applications and remain active while funds are available through June 30, 2018. Once the funds are depleted, the Age Friendly Home Adaptation Grant Program would be suspended until City appropriates additional funds for the program.

Sausalito Sister City: Cascais, Portugal

As part of our mission to promote cross-cultural and educational exchange, the Cascais Sister City program will offer our local community an opportunity to experience Portuguese music and art in the next few months. We will also be traveling to Portugal with student sailors for our annual youth sailing exchange program and we are leading an adult tour to Cascais and surrounding areas.

Traditional Portuguese Fado Music Returned to The Pines

It was an evening of Portuguese Fado singing featuring Angela Brito and David Garcia (making his 4th appearance at The Pines), accompanied by musicians Chico Avila (Portuguese guitar), Joao Cardadiero (bass) and Manuel Escobar (viloa do Fado).

The evening performance was sponsored by the Sausalito Youth Sailing Foundation, a benefit to support the 2018 Sister City Youth Sailing Exchange Program between Cascais, Portugal and Sausalito. Proceeds from the Fado night help fund the program for student sailors from the Sausalito Yacht Club (SYC) who will travel to Cascais in July this year, to sail and train at Clube Naval de Cascais.

Watch an Old-World Artisan Create a Portuguese Calcada Mosaic in Downtown Sausalito (June 11–13)

A traditional and decorative compass rose pavement design, with Calcada stones from Portugal, will be created in the heart of downtown Sausalito this spring. The Calcada will be part of a new and improved plaza in front of the Bank of America building and will be called Praca de Cascais. It will include new landscaping and seating as well as the Calcada design. The Calcada stones and the artisan to perform the work are a gift from our sister city of Cascais.

In June, the Prime Minister of Portugal, Mayor of Cascais, the Portuguese Consul General Maria Joao Lopes-Cardoso, and other Portuguese VIPs will be in Sausalito to honor the sister city relationship and attend the dedication ceremony of Praca de Cascais (Cascais Plaza). To have your family or business commemorated on a bronze plaque in the plaza, consider making a donation to the project which is being totally funded by private donations and grants. Contact: cheryl@poppinc.com

Youth Sailors Visit Cascais (June 30–July 9)

In early July, youth sailors from the Sausalito Yacht Club (SYC) will travel to Cascais to sail, train and race with their counterparts at the Clube Naval de Cascais Yacht Club as part of the 4th annual Youth Sailing Exchange program. Visiting business women from Viña Del Mar

Sausalito Sister City: Viña Del Mar, Chile

Women in Business Exchange (October 10–21)

Here in Sausalito we have trained 28 women in American business knowledge and practices shared by local and regional Bay Area business owners during four Sausalito sessions. Each of the local tutors gives their experience and input to the Chilean business women by highlighting business planning, customer development, marketing practices, profitability and more tools that lead to success and expanding a business.

2018 will be our 4th delegation visit to Chile. We will visit the businesses of the women we have trained in Sausalito this past April, and meet with some of the other 45 members of AGEP (Asociacion Gremial de Empresarias y Profesionales).

The Chilean regional government has been very supportive of women-owned businesses by funding programs that will help grow or sustain their companies. These government entities are similar to our SBA program and have provided funds for the women to travel to the US, believing that global exposure and hands-on business exchange and education will broaden the Chilean women's business focus. These women are very hard working, highly motivated, and often the sole parent in their family. They are creating jobs, building small business awareness and providing for their family. Their grassroots business development has boosted their local economy. Banks, local municipalities, and other business entities have recognized AGEP as a driving force in small business development and have consistently provided support, financing and local training guidance.

Our Sausalito Sister Cities commitment to this mentoring program has gone a long way to fulfill the people-to-people diplomacy requirement that was the initial foundation of the Sister City program established by President Eisenhower in the 1960s. There are 2,500 Sister City programs throughout the US, and SSCI has been recognized as number one in the US for cities with a population of 25,000 or less. We have shared our homes, our community and our knowledge, and when our delegation visits Viña Del Mar this year in October, we will be celebrated as partners in their growth, and as teachers and friends. We will experience and learn about their culture, their business challenges and their dreams for the future.

We couldn't provide this life changing experience for both cities without the support of our Sausalito community, our hard working committee, our homestay families and the support of the Sausalito city staff and council members. Thank you all.

If you want to learn more about the Viña Del Mar program, please contact Monica Finnegan (mfinnegan@urbanrealestateadvisors.com).

The Sausalito Historical Society

We are a group of friends, neighbors, colleagues, local merchants, scholars, writers, artists, historians, history buffs and enthusiasts who've been keeping Sausalito's past alive since 1975. The SHS is an entirely volunteer 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that collects and preserves art, artifacts, photographs and printed materials that document Sausalito's history. We provide access to the collection for public and academic research and develop publications and outreach programs to inspire local interest in Sausalito's history. As a result, we are able to educate the visiting public and to enrich the community. Annual membership dues, donations, and funds raised are used for new acquisitions, maintenance of the collection and public outreach through exhibits and publications.

SAUSALITO HISTORICAL SOCIETY

NO NAME STORIES

No Name Bar: The Wonder years 1959-1974

May 11, 2018

Library Presentation / Opening of SHS Exhibit

Neil Davis, past owner of the No Name Bar on Bridgeway, is loaning the Sausalito Historical Society memorabilia, documents and objects he collected from his years at the No Name for an exhibit at the Sausalito Historical Society. The grand opening of the exhibit will be Friday May 11, following a presentation, co-sponsored by the Sausalito Library and the Sausalito Historical Society, of "No Name Stories" at the Library at 7pm that evening.

Neil and other bar patrons from the 1959-1974 era will share some of their memories from that time. Neil was hired as the first laborer to tear out the old bar and put in the new one by the original owners of the bar. They then decided to train him as their first bartender and eventually he became part owner. The original five owners couldn't agree on a name for the bar, and by the time Neil became an owner, everyone was calling it "the no name," which it remains until this day.

On display in the exhibit will be many items from Neil's eclectic collection of things he received from patrons of the bar including Spike Africa's macramé bottles, a Spike Africa "President of the Pacific Ocean" sweatshirt, a Val Bleeker painting, Sterling Hayden's copy of the 'Suddenly' movie script, and Tashi Monroe's Heath Ceramics pitcher. Also on display will be some of the many documents Neil has collected: notes he received from staff and patrons, news articles about the No Name Bar, pictures of patrons, and notices of events at the bar.

BILL KIRSCH: FINDING THE MAGIC

June 20, 1932 - February 27, 2018

Historical Society retired Board Member Bill Kirsch died on Tuesday, February 27 at his home at Commodore Marina. Bill curated a number of exhibits for the SHS, including the works of sculptor Al Sybrian and Poet/Songwriter/ Cartoonist Shel Silverstein, who had been his friends. Those exhibits mostly consisted of memorabilia from Bill's personal collection.

Photo and original article written by Steefenie Wicks of the SHS was published February 21, 2018 in the Sausalito Marin Scope.

The year was 1972 when Fred and Ada Schwartz first visited a home in Mill Valley that was built for Neil Davis who owned the No Name Bar in Sausalito, designed by Marin County architect Bill Kirsch. The Schwartz's became intrigued with the structure. At the time the home would become vacant as the residents departed for their vacation in Mexico, so the Schwartz's decided to rent the space. It was only later that Kirsch, who never met the Schwartz's, was to learn their real names. They turned out to be John Lennon and Yoko Ono. Bill was told that when John stepped onto the master bedroom deck, he gazed out and said, "It's like living in a windmill. I always wanted to live in a windmill." The residence became known as the Windmill House.

This is just part of the magical atmosphere that a structure built and designed by architect Bill Kirsch can induce. Kirsch has built over 300 buildings including residences and small commercial projects in California, Washington and Colorado. His long list of accomplishments even includes being part of a group exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art in Paris.

Born in Ohio, he has been part of the Sausalito community off and on since 1958. He would be the first to mention that no matter how many times he left Sausalito, he would always feel the need to return. He lived off of Gate 5 road across from the Vallejo, which was the home of both artist Jean Varda and philosopher Alan Watts.

Kirsch tells of how he and his wife Felicity moved into his garage studio that he would eventually turn into a building that included studios, living space, and a community room because people were always dropping in.

"It was a time when people would drop by no matter what the time day or night," he recalls. "Finally, we put up a sign outside that said 'Closed Today' just to get some relief from the foot traffic."

Still Kirsch has fond memories of his sails with Varda aboard Varda's boat the Cytheria. Watching the artist Varda's bohemian life style fit right into the architectural designs that Kirsch would come to create. Kirsch explained, "An aspect of my design philosophy is my attention to the so-called 'peasant' spaces as opposed to the 'manor' spaces. The idea of a 'peasant' space is open, not highly structured. It's like creating spaces where the patterns of someone's life can be highly descriptive rather than restricted."

His work involved an interesting manipulation of materials, spaces and colors, providing the feeling that these were adventures for people. Kirsch was also designing green buildings before they were in fashion.

His life in Sausalito where he now resides is still full of the memories of the 10 years that he and wife Felicity lived on what he called Guru Alley.

"I called it 'Guru Alley' because you never knew who would be walking down it," he continued, "from the writers Aldous Huxley, Henry Miller and Anais Nin, to the poet Dylan Thomas, they could all be found strolling down 'Guru Alley,' for a visit to Varda's then stopping in to see what my current project was."

Kirsch's architectural career seemed to evolve with word of mouth. Kirsch has converted barns into residences, has rescued timbers from old wooden highway bridges, turning them into residences along with used lumber from San Francisco piers that he built into houses. As an expert carpenter, he was able to not only design but also build his designs himself. He has worked on a number of structures that are now part of the Sausalito floating homes community.

When asked what is one of the biggest changes he has seen in Sausalito, without hesitation he says the Art Festival.

He tells the story of how Varda started the Art Festival in the 1940's but soon tired of the project and it became part of the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce. During the mid 1960's Kirsch, also a productive artistic painter, along with a group of local artists took over the project from the Chamber. He felt that the Chamber was willing to hand over the event because they knew that Kirsch's group would fail. As it turned out, the Art Festival that year made over $15,000; the admission price was 50 cents.

Kirsch's architecture has appeared in over 30 magazines from Sunset Magazine to Life Magazine, along with the 22 residences that appeared in the Japan Interior Design magazine. He has received awards for homes, commercial/retail projects, along with a mini storage project in Berkeley.

Bill Kirsch's philosophy has always been that understanding our environment is important for peace, joy and creativity in our lives. He feels that he has been able to help people compose their environment, and that Sausalito is the magical place that allows that to happen. He feels lucky to have found a place where this is possible. When you come to visit Bill and Felicity on their houseboat, standing in a room full of Bill's paintings, as you look around you can feel that there is something magical about their whole environment that will last beyond their lifetime.

SHS ANNUAL FUNDRAISING GALA

What do Rita Hayworth and Orson Wells have in common with Sausalito? They filmed their historic 1940's film, 'The Lady from Shanghai' here in Sausalito. This year the Sausalito Historical Society's theme for their fundraising Gala was to honor the many films that have been filmed in Sausalito from the 1940's to our current time.

The Sausalito Historical Society held it's annual fundraising Gala on Tuesday, January 16, 2018 at the Sausalito Yacht Club and it was a sold out event. To kick off the celebration of the 125th Anniversary of the incorporation of the City of Sausalito, SHS President Jerry Taylor welcomed everyone and City Councilman Joe Burns made brief remarks.

Emmy award winning broadcast journalist Jan Wahl hosted the event with excerpts about the many films that have been part of Sausalito's history in collaboration with Sausalito's Librarian and Director of Communications, Abbot Chambers. Film clips from the many movies that have used Sausalito as their background were shown.

An auction and sale of Sausalito Movie Posters took place along with a selection of baskets filled with prizes donated by local businesses. There was also a silent auction of framed vintage photos of Old Sausalito. In closing - a good time was had by all.

OVER 40 THOUSAND VISITORS!

We've just tallied the number of visitors to the Ice House Visitor's Center in 2016—and it's 41,391. Visitors asked about everything from Angel Island to the Wine Country, but the most common inquiries were for bus/ferry information, Muir Woods, the Floating Homes, the Marine Mammal Center and restrooms. Visitors also ask for restaurant recommendations and the restaurants most often suggested were Salito's, Poggio, Spinnaker, Scomas, Trident, Napa Valley Burgers, Taste of Rome and Seafood Peddler. The Ice House is open Tuesday - Sunday from 11:30am to 4pm and has a wonderful historical exhibit, items for sale and docents ready to answer your questions!

Sausalito Art Festival

Home Hosting Program

Labor Day Weekend – September 1, 2, 3, 2018

The Sausalito Art Festival, boasting community involvement, has attracted prestigious artists from around the globe for 66 years.

The acclaimed Labor Day Weekend in Sausalito invites locals, tourists, and artists alike to share in the excitement of the Art Festival, but leaves artists struggling to find reasonable accommodations close by. Many of our artists are traveling from outside of the state to celebrate an inspirational weekend on the beautiful waterfront of Sausalito, and housing is an issue.

We believe that you, the Marin County locals, will find this to be an extremely exciting and fun opportunity to meet interesting artists from around the country, and possibly the globe. You will also assist in creating an experience for one of our artists and make their stay very special.

Here's how you can help!

- If your home, or a friend's home, have an extra bedroom, and are willing to have an artist stay at your home during the festival, we will do a preliminary screening and match an artist to the available host space.
- Ultimately, housing within walking distance to the festival is preferred. It can assist with the need for parking at the festival. However, with companies such as Lyft and Uber, transportation services are available, and may be just a short ride from a host home.
- We would like to provide artists with a bed and bathroom, and anything additional is up to the host. The artists are mostly self-sufficient and extremely grateful. They are up early on their way to the art festival and return late, after shutting down their booth for the evening.
- Housing will be needed for the following dates:
 - August 30, 31 – artist load in/booth set up
 - September 1, 2, 3 – duration of the Sausalito Art Festival 2018
 - September 4 – this day may vary between artists

If you can help with our Home Hosting Program, please follow the link provided and submit an application by June 1, 2018. We encourage you to forward this to your friends and family in the area to participate!

Willow Creek Academy

Willow Creek Academy, Sausalito's Public Charter School, would like to extend an invitation to the community to attend our Spring Concerts and Art Shows! Our talented and dedicated teams plan amazing showcases of our students' work, and it is our pleasure to share them with our friends in 94965.

ART PROGRAM

Ms. Lauren Haberly, Willow Creek's art teacher, spends all year teaching students drawing, painting, printmaking, and ceramics. She collaborates with teachers to align art projects with grade level standards, especially in science. Fourth grade students recently completed a project in which they researched California landforms and then painted landscapes that incorporated their new knowledge. Sixth grade students researched National Parks to complement a Science unit about protecting natural resources, and then designed a poster promoting each park. Both projects involved art concepts like mixing colors, the rule of thirds, and simplifying images.

Ms. Haberly takes great care in selecting pieces that represent each individual student's strengths, as well as a variety of artistic styles. She works with a small group of parent volunteers for several days before each show, curating, mounting, and preparing artwork for display. The Art Show is always well attended; Ms. Haberly believes each student deserves to be recognized as a gifted artist. She says she loves to hear students proudly tell their families the processes they used to create each piece of artwork.

K-5 MUSIC PROGRAM

Ms. Emilie Rohrbach teaches our elementary music program. She has been teaching for 19 years, and this is her sixth year teaching at Willow Creek Academy. Ms. Rohrbach says she became a music teacher because she believes in the power of creativity to inspire and to promote children's self-esteem. She also believes music can bring communities together in a rare and special way. She says, "There is nothing like watching a child—or an adult—be transformed when they discover themselves in this outlet."

The foundation for the music program at WCA is a methodology called Orff Schulwerk. The Orff method is used around the world to teach children, and it is successful because of its holistic approach. The lessons are structured to inspire the children with singing, dancing, acting, and playing xylophones and percussion instruments. It appeals to all learners: aural, visual, and kinesthetic. Students also learn how to play five-part compositions, including drone, ostinato, melody, harmony, and percussion. The ability to play a part while staying in tempo with the other elements of a composition is a very specific skill that helps budding musicians whether they aspire to play in a classical orchestra or in a rock band.

In third grade, Ms. Rohrbach uses this methodology to introduce jazz. In fourth grade students study ukulele, and in fifth grade students study guitar. She often lets students choose the songs they learn for our Spring Concert. Their goals are to encourage positivity and to lift up our audience. The students also honor important musicians in our Spring Concert. Last year our fifth graders performed a beautiful rendition of Leonard Cohen's "Hallelujah," and two years ago they created an amazing ukulele mash up of David Bowie's "Starman," Prince's "When Doves Cry," and Louis Armstrong's "What a Wonderful World." It brought down the house!

6-8 MUSIC PROGRAM

Mr. Phil Logan leads our Middle School Music program. His class is entitled "Music and Society." Mr. Phil designs his curriculum to span the entire three years of middle school, each year going deeper into musical concepts. Students learn how music can be used to express political and social views and how it can help to process deep emotions.

This year, 7th and 8th graders have learned American songs from the last 100 years. Students have studied the lyrics and historical contexts of songs pertaining to African American History Month, Women's History Month, and Hispanic Heritage Month. Recently our 6th grade class began exploring the art of writing songs. Using practical information and sensory details, they began forming lyrics about things taking place in their lives and communities. As they progress, they will have the opportunity to compose their own melodies, with digital and acoustic instrumentation. A select few will have the opportunity to share their pieces for the spring concert.

Please join us in celebrating the Arts at Willow Creek by attending our concerts and art shows—all community members are warmly welcomed!

Watch the ocean and bay waters for dolphin and porpoises, pelicans diving, dramatic surf! One of these could be a new trail for you to see the many views and sides of the Marin Headlands: Hawk Hill, Batteries Loop Trail or Battery Yates at Fort Baker? Pick up a trail map at the Marin Headlands Visitor Center and visit this treasure trove of a website to get maps, bird lists, self-guides, learn which trails are open to bicycles or dogs, safety tips and more! (www.nps.gov/goga/marin-headlands.htm)

Look for the links to check out the special offerings at the Bay Area Discovery Museum, The Marine Mammal Center and The Headlands Center for the Arts. These park partners each offering unique experiences and ways to engage in the park’s landscape and story!

Is this the summer to connect to the park more deeply as a volunteer? Opportunities abound to help weed, work on trails, learn about wildlife, clean beaches, etc. Visit www.parksconservancy.org for more information and to sign up.

Expecting out-of-town guests? Muir Woods now requires reservations (GoMuirWoods.com) and a good rule of thumb to avoid crowds is to go to any park site early or late in day, mid-week if possible.

See you the park this summer!

Sausalito Sustainability Commission

Hosts half-day “Sea Levels in Sausalito” Event

Government-Civilian Collaboration thrives when there is trust, urgency, and a shared vision of success.

Sausalito stands out as a place where local, state and federal agencies are working together with citizens to address the impending impacts of Sea Level Rise (SLR).

On February 3rd this year, at the US Army Corp of Engineers Bay Model, local residents gathered to learn about SLR and the various measures which may be deployed to mitigate its effects on people, property, infrastructure and the environment. The half-day event, “Sea Level in Sausalito”—which featured speakers, graphics and real-time playing of the Game of Floods—was organized by the Sausalito Sustainability Commission.

As someone who has been involved in producing a wide range of public experiences, from rock concerts to educational conferences, I’m accustomed to working inside hierarchical frameworks of various types, often including command and control micro-management. This SLR event stands out as unique in the way that all people and agencies involved fully participated and created their own piece of a puzzle. Every person involved choose an area of planning and producing the event, worked independently or in groups of two and showed up on event day having done what he or she agreed to do. The Sustainability Commission asked attendees to bring their own coffee mugs to reduce waste at the event and people showed up with their mug in hand. Thank you Sausalito People! Participants shared in the event’s promotion by talking up the event to friends and co-workers, posting information on social media, posting flyers around Sausalito and making announcements in Sausalito Currents. A variety of people showing up, making Sea Level in Sausalito a true community event, created and produced by volunteers and donations. People who care can be powerful and productive, and I am grateful to be part of this team and this city.
